

D.C. Commission on Aging

September 15, 2015

Greeting Commissioners,

It is a pleasure to welcome you back from the summer break. Hopefully, it was restful and enjoyable.

I find it necessary to cancel our D.C. Commission on Aging meeting for the month of September because of the high profile visit of Pope Francis and the impact on travel around the city as well as rescheduling conflicts. Therefore our return meeting will be held accordingly:

Date: Wednesday, October 28, 2015
Time: 10:00 am
Location: D.C. Office on Aging, 5th and K Streets, N.W.

Also, you should know that the interview process to select a new director for the D.C. Office on Aging has not been completed as of this date. The interview sessions have been on scheduled as planned.

I look forward to meeting with you at the October meeting. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to call me. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Romaine B. Thomas, Chair
D.C. Commission on Aging
